Court Refuses to Stay Case of the Riders

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court unanimously refused today to order a stay of proceedings against "Freedom Riders" arrested in Jackson, Miss.

The court acted on a request by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, which protested asserted delays in trials and burdens inflicted on the arrested persons "by virtue of the vexatious multiple prosecution program."

The court's action was announced in an order which said that the persons asking that the Jackson proceedings be stayed were apparently not those being prosecuted in Mississippi courts.

Today's action by the high tribunal came one week after it struck down "breach of the peace" convictions of 16 Negro sit-in demonstrators who tried to desegregate lunch counters in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

That decision last Monday did not decide broad constitutional questions raised in the cases. It was based on the comparatively narrow ground that there was no evidence the defendants breached the peace.

Today's refusal to stay the Jackson proceedings does not necessarily mean the Supreme Court might not act on the cases later, after the state courts act.

The Supreme Court's order today commented that "a federal injunction to stay state criminal proceedings is an extraordinary remedy."

The court added:

"In addition to the considerations normally attending an application for such relief, a serious question of standing is presented on this motion (for a stay), in that it appears that the movants (those making the motion) themselves are not being prosecuted in the Mississippi courts. On the record before us, the motion for a stay injunction pending appeal is denied."

The action today resulted from refusal by a three-judge federal court in Mississippi to order a halt to continuing prosecution of Freedom Riders.

The three-judge court on Nov. 17 ruled that issues raised by Freedom Riders had to be decided first in state courts.

From this Nov. 17 ruling, the legal defense fund of NAACP appealed to the Supreme Court asking that it stay all Jackson proceedings pending a review of the three-judge court ruling.

The NAACP request asserted state prosecutors had refused to agree to a test suit in state appellate courts, with the result that a long delay appeared possible before the highest tribunal could be given an appeal on the merits of the case.

A reply brief filed with the Supreme Court by lawyers for the city of Jackson asserted that they had offered to litigate a test case after the first group of Freedom Riders arrived in the city.

Today's Supreme Court rejection of the stay request turned down a Justice Department contention that a stay should be granted.

The department, in a brief, asserted that "federal abstention at this juncture will result in the virtual suspension in Jackson of federal constitutional rights."

Texarkana Doctor Drowns Duck Hunting

Dr. George W. Parson, aged 64, prominent Texarkana physician, drowned Sunday at Grassy Lake while duck hunting. His body was recovered about 10 a. m. Monday.

Dr. Parson was a member of the Hempstead Hunting Club, a private organization which owns Grassy Lake. He left Sunday by himself to hunt. When he failed to return Sunday afternoon a search party was organized by Sheriff Jimmie Griffin.

His body was found about 150 yards from shore by B. W. Edwards, Hope and Son Neff, who were in a boat. He had been a member of the hunting club for at least 25 years.

The body was returned to Hope by Herndon — Cornelius Funeral Service and later today removed to East Funeral Home at Texarkana.

Dr. Parson was a native of Virginia and attended William and Mary College where he received the counselor and Anna Graves Society awards, two of the highest honors for undergraduates. He received his medical degrees in 1922 and entered private practice in Virginia until 1926. He received a fellowship in medicine from the Mayo Foundation and received his MS degree from the Mayo Foundation in 1929.

He was head of the department of internal medicine at Southern Clinic at Texarkana from 1930 until his retirement about a year ago.

Dr. Parson had contributed great numbers of articles to medical literature.

He is survived by his wife, his mother, seven brothers and two half brothers. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Yule Postmarks Can Be Varied

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thousands of youngsters are getting pre-Christmas letters via Santa Claus, Inc. But yuletide postmarks aren't limited to small fry appeal.

Santa might like a Big Chimney, W. Va., postmark.

For general correspondence try Christmastime Cove, Maine, or, and Holiday, Kan.

Wives might hint for gifts via Ermine, Ky.; Beaver, Iowa; Fox, Okla.; Diamond, W. Va.; Pearl, Ill., and Cadillac, Mich.

Husbands could reply: Economy, Ind.

For the weariest people in the house on Christmas Eve—Paw Paw, Mich., or Pawpaw, Ill., and Mummy, Ky.

For last minute shoppers—Hurricane, Md.; Scurry, Tex.; Rush, W. Va., and Delay, Miss.

For the decorator—Holly, Colo.; Bells, Tenn.; Candle, Alaska; Ribbon, Ky., and Snow, Okla.

Gift for dad—Ty, Tex.

Two more gifts for dad—Ty Ty, Ga.

For the Christmas cook—Turkey, Tex.; Roll, Ariz.; Cranberry, Pa.; Goodwine, Ill.; Olive, Calif.; Coffey, Mo., and Pie, W. Va.

For the romantic—Mistletoe, Ky.

For after Christmas — Exchange, W. Va.

Fighting in Katanga Is Now Raging

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga (AP) — Furious battles raged in the streets of Elisabethville today as the first U.N. armored patrol pushed into the center of the city.

After pushing into the town against negligible resistance, the U.N. troops ran into withering fire from shops and private houses. It is uncertain whether the firing came from Katanga troops or whites putting up a last ditch stand.

These seemed to be the last hours before most of Elisabethville fell to the slowly advancing U.N. force.

By PETER GROSE

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — U.S. Ambassador Edmund A. Gullion today flew to meet Moise Tshombe and hoped to bring the Katanga president back for unity talks with Congo Premier Cyrille Adoula.

Gullion took off at daybreak in a U.S. Air Force Constellation as President Kennedy's personal peace envoy.

One report from Elisabethville said Tshombe was still inside his heavily defended official palace in the Katanga capital under siege by U.N. troops only yards away.

Other reports placed him in the African district south of Elisabethville.

American officials here said unless Gullion's pilot got definite word that Tshombe was waiting in his capital, the ambassador would land at Ndola, in neighboring Northern Rhodesia, and hope to meet the separatist Katanga leader there.

Gullion decided on his sudden flight after conferring Sunday night with Adoula shortly after the premier's return from a trip to Kivu Province.

Adoula reportedly agreed to meet Tshombe but Congolese government officials here clearly were in no mood for talks except on their own terms — bringing Katanga back under the wing of the Leopoldville regime.

American officials emphasized that Gullion had no intention of offering Tshombe a cease-fire in his embattled secessionist province as a condition for talks with Adoula.

But the ambassador was empowered — with U.N. approval — to guarantee Tshombe and his party safe passage and protection from arrest should he agree to come to a meeting with Adoula.

Kitona, the U.N. military base along the Congo's Atlantic coast, was mentioned as a likely site.

President Is Heartened by Latin Welcome

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President Kennedy, suffering from "a heavy cold," stopped in Palm Beach today instead of returning directly to Washington from his weekend trip to Latin America.

Press secretary Pierre Salinger said Kennedy's present plan is to leave for Washington Tuesday morning.

Salinger told newsmen that the decision to stay over in Palm Beach was made only this morning, en route to Florida from a refueling stop at Ramey Air Force Base in Puerto Rico.

Salinger used the description "heavy cold" in describing the chief executive's illness.

The Air Force jet carrying the presidential party had been scheduled to stop here only long enough to let off Mrs. Kennedy, who was to join her children at Palm Beach for the Christmas holidays.

Kennedy had intended to get together with them on Friday, on his return from a meeting with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan in Bermuda.

Salinger's announcement that Kennedy's present plan is to continue on to Washington Tuesday indicated the President still expects to keep the date with Macmillan. His schedule has called for a flight from Washington to Bermuda Thursday.

Traces of a cold showed up Sunday night in Bogota as he spoke to a dinner given in honor of the Kennedys by President and Mrs. Alberto Lleras Camargo of Colombia. There was a slight huskiness in his voice.

The Kennedys' whirlwind trip to the upper tier of South America was an obvious personal success. An enthusiastic greeting at Caracas, Venezuela, where leftists had made violent attempts to incite demonstrations against the United States and an overwhelming reception at Bogota, Colombia, reassured Kennedy.

Puerto Rico had reacted as expected on Friday at the start of the weekend journey, with more than 200,000 exuberant spectators on the streets of San Juan cheering the President.

Although the success of his Alliance for Progress hinges primarily on the good will and cooperation of governments in power, Kennedy was openly gratified by his welcome from the people in Caracas and Bogota.

Half a million or more Colombians lined country roads and jammed Bogota's streets Sunday to cheer the Kennedys. Colombian officials called the demonstration the greatest by far in their capital's history.

The Kennedys' reception in Caracas on Saturday and their sendoff Sunday contrasted dramatically with the tepid reception that pro-Castro elements and groups hostile to Venezuelan President Romulo Betancourt would cause grief.

Kennedy emphasized two positions in his 6,300 miles of travel:

1. An appeal for hemispheric support of his Alliance for Progress, the $20-million plan for public and private funds to raise Latin American living standards.

2. Wholehearted support for Betancourt and President Alberto Lleras Camargo of Colombia. Kennedy made clear that he counts on their example to generate wide backing for the alliance.

India Troops Invade Portugal Territory, Claim Quick Capture

At Least 250 Die in Brazil Circus Fire

NITEROI, Brazil (AP) — Fire roared through a nylon circus tent Sunday afternoon as 2,500 persons watched a performance. Police estimated 250 were killed.

It was Brazil's worst disaster and the worst circus fire in history, worse than the Ringling Bros. fire in Hartford, Conn., in 1944 in which 168 died.

Officials early today said 180 bodies had been recovered, many of them children. An estimated 500 were injured, some seriously.

Gov. Celso Picanha of Rio de Janeiro State said arson was suspected. Niteroi is across Guanabara Bay from Rio de Janeiro.

The fire flashed up the tent as two trapeze performers began their aerial act. Within five minutes the flames had enveloped the mammoth tent and seared the ropes. The blazing mass fell on the spectators.

Some were trapped in their seats. Others could not get near the exits. Some were trampled to death.

Fear-crazed women and children rushed for the exits, fell atop each other and caught fire.

Treatment of the hundreds of injured was hampered by shortages of medicine, blood plasma, hospital beds, doctors and nurses. Air force helicopters flew medicine and plasma from Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo. Radio appeals brought doctors and nurses from Rio.

Niteroi's five hospitals were filled. Others of the injured were ferried across the bay to Rio hospitals.

Among the survivors were the two trapeze artists. The woman, Antonietta Estevanovich, said she was standing on the platform and her partner was swinging through the air when they saw the fire.

"I didn't yell fearing he would fall," she said, "he completed his swing and we both jumped into the net and escaped."

Prison Food
Strike Waning

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — A strike against prison food seems to be waning among a group of 64 Negroes arrested during anti-segregation demonstrations.

Capt. Thomas T. Edwards of the sheriff's office said women prisoners began eating jail fare Sunday night after all prisoners had refused meals since the previous day.

Seventy-three Negroes—44 men and 29 women—were jailed Thursday and Friday after demonstrations led by the Congress of Racial Equality against stores it accused of discriminating in hiring and maintaining segregated lunch counters. Nine prisoners were released on bond.

The racial situation had quieted down over the weekend.

Portuguese Situation By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

BOMBAY — Neutralist India spurred a U.N. appeal for talks and sent troops, tanks, bombers and warships to clear out three enclaves that Portugal has held on the Arabian Sea coast for 4½ centuries. It claimed quick capture of Damao and Diu—a claim disputed by the Portuguese—and sweeping gains in a three-pronged drive into Goa, the largest of the three.

LISBON—Portugal called for an urgent meeting of the U.N. Security Council to demand a cease-fire, withdrawal of Indian troops and a denunciation of India for "an unprovoked military aggression."

It ordered internment of all Indian nationals in Portugal's overseas provinces and froze their assets.

LONDON—The Indian invasion, which Prime Minister Nehru called a police action, was denounced in Western nations, applauded by Communist bloc commentators. Indonesia, itself quarreling with the Netherlands over West New Guinea, gave strong support to the attack by its big brother in the Asian-African bloc. Britain announced it will support Portugal's appeal for U.N. discussion.

WASHINGTON — The United States took a hands-off attitude. State Department officials made clear that the Kennedy administration strongly disapproved India's action, but said it had decided against any immediate steps in the United Nations to oppose the invasion.

Portugal asked for an urgent meeting of the U.N. Security Council and a denunciation of India "for an unprovoked military aggression."

Spurning a U.N. appeal for negotiations, Prime Minister Nehru sent troops, tanks, warships and bombers to a local hospital for treatment. Her condition could not be determined immediately but she is not believed seriously injured.

There was heavy damage to both vehicles. Officers charged Aaron with running a stop sign. Two other weekend accidents were investigated. Saturday on Front Street an auto driven by R. L. McCain backed into another owned by Dalton Smith, McCain, charged with driving while intoxicated by Officers Martin and Ward, suffered a cut on his face. He was treated at a doctors office and released. Property damage was minor.

Nehru Spurns UN Appeal in 'Liberation'

BOMBAY, India, (AP) — The Indian government announced today its troops had liberated the two smaller Portuguese enclaves of Damao and Diu north of Bombay.

Authoritative reports from Belgaum, near the border of Goa, the largest of the three Portuguese colonies, said the Indian invasion there was going according to schedule and the invaders were within a few miles of Nova Goa, the capital.

These reports added that Indian air force planes were providing bombing support.

Plotting a U.N. appeal for negotiations instead of war, Prime Minister Nehru sent his troops into Goa and the two smaller enclaves just after midnight to end Portugal's tiny footholds on the west coast of India.

The Lisbon government said its forces were putting up "gallant resistance" in Goa, 200 miles south of Bombay, but most troops had been reported withdrawn from Damao and Diu earlier to strengthen the most important enclave.

Nehru Spurns

A spokesman for Nehru's regime, leader of the Asian-African neutralist bloc, announced the Indian navy put a Portuguese warship out of action in a sea battle off Goa, 200 miles south of Bombay.

Portugal, a charter member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, said it had only one warship in the area, the 30-year-old sloop Alfonso de Albuquerque.

The Portuguese, who had agreed to negotiations, said their forces were outnumbered more than 2-1, but were putting up gallant resistance in Goa. Men from the Diu and Damao garrisons were reported to have been withdrawn to strengthen the defenses of Goa, a territory of 1,537 square miles and a population of 600,000.

By Indian account, the three-pronged strike into Goa — with tanks helping to batter the way — was going according to schedule. Several towns were reported seized. Authoritative reports from Belgaum, near the Goa frontier, said the invaders were within a few miles of Nova Goa, the capital.

Goa, the main battleground, is on the Arabian Sea at about the latitude of Guatemala. Indian air force planes bombed Nova Goa's airport, an Indian spokesman announced. He said the runway, and one radio station were put out of commission.

India adopted bombing tactics because of the impossibility of entering the capital's harbor, which had been heavily mined by the Portuguese, he said.

Otherwise Indian troops had gone between eight and 10 miles inside the border in a wide arc, the spokesman said.

The Indian invasion to seize the territories ruled for more than four centuries by Portugal brought sharp criticism from the United States.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk called an urgent meeting of his top aides in Washington and a high-ranking official said afterward: "This is a classic example of the use of force by one of the most moralistic members of the neutral bloc."

President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan earlier had appealed directly to Nehru to seek a peaceful settlement of the long-standing dispute. But Nehru turned a deaf ear to their pleas.

Portugal ordered internment of all Indian nationals in Portuguese overseas territories and froze their assets. There are sizable Indian populations in Mozambique and Angola in Africa and in Macao on the Red China border.

Details of the fighting were skimpy but heavy firing could be heard at this Indian command post only a few miles from the Goa frontier.

The Indian forces swept across the Goa border at three places in full force, with tanks, armored cars and air cover.

Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon said in New Delhi that the invaders were being helped by underground sympathizers inside Goa. He said there was evidence

Big Appetizing Dish TURKEY-HAM CASSEROLE

This casserole offers a most tempting and appetizing way to utilize the good meat left on turkey after the first or second round.

The dish comes out of the oven, gently a-bubble, breathing of apples, of turkey, of seasonings and other savory ingredients. It's filled with onion, green peppers, pimientos, sliced olives and canned apple sauce. Not to mention ham and noodles and lots of rich gravy. And the turkey itself, of course. All of it is coming, relishing and satisfying.

Come one, come all... the day is brisk and here's a dish that fortifies, sustains and bestows happy content on all who eat it.

This is how you make it:

- 1 cup chopped onion
- 3/4 cup diced green pepper
- 3/4 cup butter or margarine
- 1-4 ounce can whole pimientos, diced
- 3/4 cup sliced ripe olives
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon oregano
- 1 1/2 cups diced cooked turkey
- 1 1/2 cups diced cooked ham
- 2 1/2 cups cooked noodles
- 2 cups canned apple sauce
- 2 tablespoons melted butter
- Few grains paprika

Saute onion and green pepper in butter or margarine until lightly browned. Add pimientos, olives, salt and oregano. Using 1 1/2 cups of noodles, place in layers the turkey, vegetables, ham and the noodles in buttered 2 quart casserole, ending with vegetable layer. Spoon apple sauce over top. Place remaining noodles with 2 tablespoons melted butter; place in ring around edge of casserole and sprinkle with paprika. Bake in hot oven, 375 degrees, 25 to 30 minutes. Makes 6-8 servings.

Controversial Pastor Asks for Unity

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Dr. Ramsey Pollard, pastor of the Bellevue Baptist Church and former president of the Southern Baptist Convention, called for unity Sunday after his quarreling congregation voted to keep him in the pulpit.

The 1,190 to 808 vote, cast in a secret ballot, climaxed a church squabble which attracted public attention due to the ministers' prominence and the size of the church — 9,000 members, Memphis' largest and the second largest in the denomination.

Dr. Pollard, formerly of Knoxville, gained national attention during last year's presidential election by publicly opposing John F. Kennedy, a Roman Catholic, on religious grounds.

The climactic vote on Dr. Pollard's status came in a business session which followed regular Sunday morning services. A resolution was presented accusing the minister of:

- Failing to provide effective spiritual leadership.
- Creating an atmosphere not conducive to real worship.
- Attempting to act as "master instead of servant."
- Putting policy making functions in the hands of the paid staff.
- Bypassing the usual channels of business.
- Counteracting the democratic process within the church.

Others spoke of their personal love, respect and admiration of their pastor and one member said: "If our church is not growing, I don't believe we ought to blame our preacher. We ought to blame ourselves."

"You can't serve a man without his wanting to be close enough to you to be served," Dr. Pollard said in answer to charges he was a poor spiritual leader.

"I didn't seek this place. I didn't even want it," he said. "I'm here. I've loved you and tried to serve you."

Tshombe reportedly has indicated in informal contacts with U.S. diplomats in the past few days that he would agree to this arrangement.

Gullion's mission was limited to setting up the meeting between the two Congo leaders — not to mediating their talks. Kennedy stepped in the Congo crisis directly after Tshombe appealed to him to intervene to bring a cease-fire in the fighting between U.N. and Katanga forces.

U.N. Acting Secretary-General U Thant, backed by the United States, has repeatedly made clear that there will be no cease-fire until U.N. objectives in Katanga are achieved.

U.N. troops were crushing Katanga resistance in Elisabethville today with only two remaining objectives still needed to give them virtual control of the city — Tshombe's palace and Radio Katanga.

The drive launched by 5,000 U.N. troops has carried into the heart of Elisabethville with a giant pincer movement clamping a vise to isolate the city.

Christmas Every Day for Family

HOLYOKE, Mass. (AP) — It's been Christmas every day for the Feyre family since the birth of their quadruplets 8 1/2 months ago.

Letters and cards of congratulation for Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Feyre, parents of Holyoke's quadruplets, still arrive daily from many parts of the world. The Feyres have six other children.

These messages bear wishes of joy at the rare quadruple birth, said to occur only once in every 750,000 births.

"You'd think that the quadruplets would be all work," says Mrs. Feyre, 36, "but it's not like that. There is always something to laugh about and something new to talk about every day. It seems like

Another U. S. Army Group Uses Highway

BERLIN (AP) — Another U.S. infantry company rolled westward along the lifeline autobahn from isolated West Berlin today, defying a new Communist demand that American troop movements along the highway stop.

Capt. Robert R. Rafferty of Huntington, N.Y., led about 120 men and 17 vehicles to the control point on the city limits before daylight today.

The company, moving in three groups, was cleared without a hitch by the Soviet control officers. It was below freezing as the vehicles headed along the 110 miles of ice crusted highway to West Germany.

The unit, Co. C of the 3rd Battle Group, 6th Infantry Regiment, will spend four days in West Germany on field training, the Army said. Then it will return to West Berlin.

The move began less than 36 hours after the Communist regime of East Germany demanded in a formal note that the United States stop sending Army units along the

as though we've had Christmas all along."

The favorite toys of Robert, Maureen, Margaret, and James are discarded cereal boxes. But this week, they're tugging at the legs of two rubber reindeer.

Each quad will receive a small stuffed toy from the parents this Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. Feyre are planning an inexpensive yuletide for the babies and "one gift that they would really like" for the other six children in the family.

More Aid to Viet Nam Is Ordered

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today ordered increased assistance for the defenses of South Viet Nam in its desperate efforts to repel Communist aggression from the North.

Government officials said this will not mean sending any American combat troops to Viet Nam. Kennedy acted in response to an appeal from President Ngo Dinh Diem of the Vietnamese Republic.

Diem said his country "now faces what is perhaps the gravest crisis in its long history" and "We must have further assistance from the United States if we are

Visit Test for Progress of Alliance

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

CARACAS, Venezuela (P) — President Kennedy's weekend visit to Venezuela and Colombia may turn out to be a significant test for his Alliance for Progress.

If the trip is a notable success, prospects for the alliance will seem brighter. The prospects evidently need brightening. Outside the United States the alliance often is regarded, even by its friends, as a far from hopeful attempt to wipe out Latin America's弊 through voluntary reforms—overnight.

The Kennedy trip is limited to the two South American nations whose governments are among the best friends of the United States. He is to confer with perched the most courageous of all the democratic leaders in Latin America: Romulo Betancourt of Venezuela and Alberto Lleras Casanova of Colombia.

Both men are butts of violent Communist-Castroist attack. Both have broken diplomatic relations with Havana. Both are betting they can hold off an explosion on the left. Each is staking his future on the hope that the Alliance for Progress will become a positive reality.

These are men Fidel Castro repeatedly taunts with names like "miserable traitor, imperialist lackey, and far worse. It seems safe to say that in all Latin America, Castro hates no men more.

In Colombia, the President will attend a ceremony inaugurating a program to be carried out with significant U.S. financial participation: The construction of 13,000 houses in Bogota for the labor and middle classes and the construction of 22,000 classrooms.

These are the sort of projects Latin Americans understand and welcome. Such programs can have a heavy impact among the young Latin Americans, the student to win the war now being waged against us."

Diem said the forces of international communism which are arrayed against his country are "more than we can meet with the resources at hand."

Kennedy reacted with word that: "We shall promptly increase our assistance to your defense effort as well as help relieve the destruction of the floods which you describe. I have already given the orders to get these programs under way."

The exchange of messages between the two presidents was made public simultaneously here and in Saigon.

Kennedy didn't spell out what he meant by increased assistance to the Vietnamese defense effort. Other administration sources said that this must not be taken to mean that U.S. fighting men will be dispatched to the area. There has been frequent speculation on this possibility in the past.

Rather, government sources said there will be across-the-board assistance of the kind the United States has been giving Viet Nam, plus improved technical advice to enable the Vietnamese to make better use of equipment to be placed at their disposal.

Tree in a Tub

Stability and safety are special features of this Christmas tree holder. The holder is made by placing a tree and a conventional Christmas tree stand in a galvanized steel laundry tub. Then fill the tub with sand. Add lights and ornaments to the tree and decorate the tub. Sprinkle water on the sand, being careful to keep hands off electric lights and wires. It's practically impossible to tip over a tree in a tub, and the wet sand keeps the tree fresh and fire-resistant.

DOROTHY DIX

Should She Remarry Ex-Husband?

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My former husband, a most persuasive man, is talking me into remarrying him. This frightens me for I've suffered because of him.

He'd been married before, had two children whom I cared for as my own. Perhaps, having none, I loved them more. The first two years of our life together were all a wife could wish for. Then, in 1957, another woman entered the picture. In 1961, he asked for a divorce. I told him to bring the other women to the house so we could talk things over.

I was not only hurt but curious. Where had I failed? This woman said if I loved my husband I would give him up since only she could make him happy. This I doubted, after seeing her, but I agreed to the divorce.

Such is the perversity of man, my husband no longer wanted it. I insisted he finish what he started and marry the other woman. She had lost interest herself and was about to marry another man! Now the divorce has been granted and my husband is courting me all over again. Friends say I would be a big fool to remarry him. Do you agree? I am only 30 but confused.

Dear Confused: I most certainly do agree. You have been far too magnanimous as it is. Your ex-husband may be a persuasive talker but, from the way he changes his mind, he is a shilly-shallier who would wreck a woman's life. You're young. Chalk this unhappy episode up to experience and be thankful you're free. With the world still before you, why not see some of it and in the doing, change your thoughts. As a suggestion I am sending you my leaflet, "Travel and Work."

Every time I bring up the question my husband flies into a tantrum, refuses to give me the money for driving lessons and yells that he'll be no party to the slaughter of innocents. 'Pfu! I told him, and got a job as baby-dents and intellectuals who cause much of the ferment and who are captivated by the idea of rapid change toward national self-respect.

Of all problems in Latin America, illiteracy and miserable housing probably are the most nagging and the most dangerous in terms of breeding resentment and violence.

Lleras has told his countrymen the U.S. President is not journeying to South America to "make political and economic demands like those which chained Cuba to the Soviet orbit in exchange for arms."

There is risk involved in the Kennedy trip. It would be strange if the Communists and Castristas did not try to do something to spoil it. However, if it is successful, it can pave the way for somewhat bolder ventures south of the border.

As President Lleras pointed out, perhaps the time has come when Latin Americans must decide for themselves whether their future lies with a Marxist-Leninist Castro under Soviet control or in "collaboration among the countries of the hemisphere which answers our needs, is adjusted to our way of life and asks nothing in return from us."

He has a fine job and we own two cars — a sedan and station wagon. He drives the sedan to work but I'm not supposed to touch the station wagon with a 10-foot pole. Should I continue to defy him? — Faithful Reader

Dear Faithful: Your husband treats you like a child and acts like one himself. Put a dent in his masculine superiority by learning to outshine him at the wheel. But don't make a production of it. Use a drive-yourself car until he concedes that you are capable of handling the station wagon.

Dear Helen: In reading your columns on whipping children, I've come to the conclusion you shouldn't generalize. Some kids respond to one sort of discipline, others to another kind. I was kept busy putting things out of reach when my first baby started to walk. One day a neighbor remarked, "It's none of my business, but putting things out of your child's reach is no solution. When you take him visiting, people aren't going to tear up their house for him and as a result, he'll surely break something. Slap his hands gently until he learns to play with his own belongings and leaves those of others alone. It worked. I've raised three boys. One was so sensitive that all I had to do was speak sternly. A gentle piddle-whacking was the only answer for the other two. But—I say when you do have to whip, strike not in anger, but in love. — A Steady Reader.

Dear Steady Reader: Is it possible to strike another in love and not anger?

Contracts Let

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Army Engineers have awarded the first contract in Arkansas to locate structures suitable for public use but shelters. It went to Thompson, Clippard and Phelps, Little Rock architects. The firm will conduct a survey in nine counties and part of a 10th to determine the number of buildings, caves, mines, tunnels or other structures to be surveyed later as to their suitability as shelters.

One sixth of the state's total sales and receipts are derived from sales and service to travelers.

Broyles Hopes Weather Will Favor Porkers

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles looks to the skies this week hoping the weather clears for some outside workouts for the Sugar Bowl-bound Porkers.

Rain, snow and sub-freezing temperatures hampered Arkansas all last week, keeping the Razorbacks indoors four days and limiting the amount of practice.

Hambling Barnhill Field House is the scene of competition between the football Hogs and the basketball Hogs.

Bleachers, set up in the field house, put the reducer on football practice.

Most of last week's sessions were spent "boning up" on mighty Alabama, the Porkers' staunch bowl opponent and number one rated team in the country.

This week's schedule calls for the Razorbacks to workout here today and Tuesday before journeying home for the Christmas holidays.

They'll fly to Baton Rouge, La., Dec. 27 and they'll use Louisiana State facilities while LSU is in Florida honing up for its Orange Bowl clash with Colorado.

In last week's two outdoor meetings, quarterbacks George McKinney and Billy Moore sharpened their passing attack to halfbacks Lance Alworth and Paul Dudley.

Although Razorback fans may bemoan the high stepping antics of the weatherman, Broyles hadn't really planned heavy workouts for his squads.

In the past two years they've taken it easy and beat Georgia Tech in the 1959 Gator Bowl while being nudged 7-6 last year in the Cotton Bowl.

Broyles said if the Razorbacks aren't ready to play football after three rough months of it, they'll never be ready.

From their conference ending, it appears they're ready.

Liberty Bowl Game Won by Syracuse

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Syracuse beat Miami 13-14 Saturday in a cracking good Liberty Bowl football game, but apparently even top-flight performance is no match for bad weather.

Ambrose (Bud) Dudley, head of the bowl association, said that unless he gets financial help the third game Saturday could have been the last.

Dudley suggested that business and industry buy blocks of tickets as a means of preserving the game in Philadelphia. He indicated there was a possibility he might promote the game elsewhere.

Only 15,712 showed up for Saturday's Syracuse-Miami game played in sub-freezing temperatures. Even with the $100,000 television money contributed by the National Broadcasting Co., Dudley and his associates will have to absorb a sizeable loss.

The game was everything a football fan could desire with Ernie Davis, Syracuse's All-American halfback, putting on a great show. The 10-pound workhorse carried the ball 20 times for 140 yards and scored one touchdown.

GUNG HO!—Ever present cigar in his mouth, Ralph Houk signals that everything is quite all right as he catches up with news while in Lenox Hill Hospital bed in New York. The Yankee manager was operated on for hemorrhoids.

Pre-Holiday Play Ends in the AIC

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

State Teachers, Ouachita and Henderson wound up their pre-Christmas Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference basketball action unbeaten last week. But all three have tasted defeat in non-league action.

The conference closes down for the holiday after an abbreviated slate of games Tuesday night. Ozarks plays Southern State at Magnolia and Arkansas A&M tackles Hendrix at Conway.

Henderson goes to Marshall, Tex., for a game with East Texas Baptist.

State Teachers surprised with a 70-69 victory over Tech Friday night despite a 40-point performance by Tech great Ken Saylor. Earlier in the week, the Bears beat Arkansas A&M 70-53.

Tech, the defending champion, fell into a tie for fourth place with A&M, Harding and Arkansas College. All are 2-2.

State Teachers has won eight of its nine games over the season is 4-0 in conference play, and won't play again until next year. Neither will Ouachita, which is 5-1 for the year and tied with Henderson at 3-0 in the league.

Tech goes to a Christmas tournament at Cape Girardeau, Mo., Dec. 29 and Henderson will participate in the Bayou Holiday Classic on Dec. 29.

Ouachita won its only game last week, a 78-72 triumph over Southern State. Henderson won a conference game 79-51 over Harding but lost two non-conference outings to Nicholls State of Thibodaux, La., 81-59 Friday night and 57-49 Saturday night. Mississippi College beat Arkansas Col-

Hendrix held Southern State without a field goal for the last nine minutes and 43 seconds Saturday night and forged a 57-46 victory. Southern led much of the way until midway through the second period.

As early as A. D. 80 oysters were exported from the Thames estuary to Rome. The historian Sallust commented, "The poor Britons, there is some good in them after all—they produce an oyster."

Porkers Down Old Miss for 5th in a Row

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas leads the Southwest Conference in non-conference basketball and Porker guard Jerry Carlton heads the league in scoring with an 18.1 average in six games.

The Razorbacks won their fifth straight, Saturday night, coming from behind a 12-point halftime deficit to whip Mississippi 59-54 in Little Rock.

The comeback was sparked by Carlton and junior forward Tommy Boyer, each of whom scored 16 points.

Donnie Kessinger, a high school star at Forrest City two years ago, led Mississippi to a 34-22 halftime lead with 11 strategic points. Then Arkansas Coach Glen Rose sent junior guard Skippy Coffman out to guard Kessinger on a man-to-man basis and the former Arkansas speedster got only five points in the second half and wound up with 16.

Mississippi was unbeaten in four games and held the upper hand through the first half mainly because Arkansas was in an ineffective zone defense.

Arkansas came out of that at halftime and the tide turned quickly. The Hogs still hit only 31 per cent of their field goal attempts.

They got a few days of rest after three games in one week. Thursday night they take on Louisiana State's Tigers in Shreveport in the last pre-Christmas outing. On Dec. 29-30, the Hogs will participate in the Poinsettia Classic at Greenville, S.C.

Carlton hit 58 points in three games last week and has 100 points in six games. Jan Loudermilk of SMU is second with a 14.8 average. Carlton has hit 34 field goals and 41 free throws. Larry Wofford of Arkansas ranks ninth in the league with 70 points and an 11.6 average.

Roy Rowe

Roy Rowe, 190-pound junior center for Ouachita Baptist College, has received honorable mention on the Williamson's 1961 Little All-American football team.

Rowe, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Larie Rowe of Hope, has been a standout for the Tigers for the past three years and earlier this year was named to the Arkansas Gazette's All-AIC first team on defense.

He is a 1959 graduate of Hope High School.

Giants Gain Tie, Place in Playoffs

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Giants, rebuilt by trades, rookies and a first-year coach, are champions of the National Football League's Eastern Conference for the fourth time in six years and aiming at the title game against Green Bay's powerful Packers at Green Bay on Dec. 31.

It will be a replay of a regular-season meeting at Milwaukee, Dec. 3, which the Packers won 20-17, but rookie coach Alie Sherman of New York thinks the result may be different.

"Green Bay is the best club we've played," Sherman said after the Giants wrapped up the title Sunday in a 7-7 tie with the Cleveland Browns at Yankee Stadium.

"But we'll be better next time, both physically and mentally. We'll be loose from now on."

The Giants may shudder for a day or two before they "loosen up," regardless of what Sherman may think. Except for a flubbed pass by sure-handed Ray Renfro, the New Yorkers would instead be spending this week getting ready for a division playoff with the Philadelphia Eagles.

The Eagles, needing a victory over Detroit and a New York loss to tie the Giants, did their part, beating the Lions 27-24 with 10 points in the last four minutes for a 10-4 record. But the Giants held them off by a half game at 10-3-1 because the Browns blew a sure victory over New York when Renfro dropped a 34-yard pass from Milt Plum on the Giants' 8-yard line with about three minutes to play.

New York, rebuilt with deals that brought Del Shofner, Y. A. Tittle, Joe Walton and Erich Barnes and the addition of rookies Greg Larson, Bobby Galters and Joel Wells, scored its only touchdown in the first period on Tittle's 7-yard pass to Wells. Cleveland got even when Plum hit Leon Clarke on a 38-yard pass play in the third quarter. Thereafter, the tremendous punting of Don Chandler, the rugged Giant defense and Renfro's blunder kept the teams in a knot.

Green Bay 11-3, which clinched the Western Division title two weeks ago, closed out with a 24-17 triumph over Los Angeles; Washington snapped a 23-game winless streak, 24-24 over Dallas; St. Louis blanked Pittsburgh 20-0; and the Chicago Bears, with Billy Wade coming off the bench and passing for 355 yards and four touchdowns, whipped Minnesota 52-35 in other season closing games. Baltimore edged San Francisco 27-24 Saturday afternoon in their closer.

Sony Jurgensen threw for three touchdowns and pushed his record passing yardage to 3,716.

When to Fish or Hunt Solunar Tables

Record Kill of Deer in State

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Game and Fish Commission reports a record deer kill this year—12,967—with the just ended second period yet to be counted. Final period in the three-part season comes the last three days this month.

The 1961 deer kill is expected to total over 17,000.

Officials said the total to date is 561 more than in both 1959 periods, the last record year.

Two new hunting areas were opened this year, the White River Wildlife Refuge in Arkansas and Monroe counties and the Shumaker area in Calhoun and Ouachita Counties, but officials said even without these a new record was certain.

The first December period, lasting six days, closed Saturday with the results yet to be tabulated. The December 1959 take was 3,690.

Oilers Make It 9 Games Without Loss

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

Associated Press Sports Writer

Houston's Oilers have won nine in a row and are champions of the American Football League's Eastern Division.

Sunday's results indicated that they could pretty well count on making it 10 in a row before winding up the 1961 season.

San Diego's Chargers don't look like they will offer much resistance when the clubs clash at San Diego Sunday.

San Diego's season TD total to 32. His passing also set up a 10-yard field goal by Bobby Walston, now the NFL career scoring leader with 833 points. That won it for the Eagles with 25 seconds remaining.

Dick James scored four touchdowns and rookie Norm Snead passed for one TD and scored another as Washington ended its winless string. Ironically, the Redskins started their nosedive after beating Dallas on Oct. 9, 1960.

A 17-yard run by Elijah Pitts, who helped Tom Moore fill in for the absent Paul Hornung, won for Green Bay at Los Angeles and overcame two sparkling touchdowns by the Rams' Dick Bass.

Bass raced 55 yards from scrimmage and 90 yards on a punt return to shove Los Angeles into the lead before the Packers came ready for a division playoff with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Ben Agajanian and Pitts game winning run.

In the other games: Sam Etcheberry passed for two touchdowns as the Cards wound up at 7-7 with their third straight victory; and Wade's passing enabled the Bears to overcome a quick 14-0 Minnesota lead.

NOVEMBER AUTO SALES SET RECORD

Good News from Dodge! Prices on all DODGE DART models are lower than last year

More new cars were sold this November than in any other November in automotive history. Industry sales are booming at a record rate.

Before you buy any new car, check your dependable Dodge Dealer. Check the new size Dodge Dart, actually priced up to $71 less than last year's comparable model.

COMPARE DART'S NEW LOW PRICE

Comparisons, below, are based on manufacturers' suggested retail price of six cylinder, 2-door sedans. Only while-wall tires, wheel covers, other optional equipment, state and local taxes (if any) and destination charge extra.

FORD FAIRLANE	$2079
MERCURY METEOR	$2203
THE NEW SIZE DODGE DART	$2241
CHEVY BISCAYNE	$2324
FORD GALAXIE	$2378

The 1962 Dart is a totally new kind of Dodge automobile. Two feet shorter than America's largest car. Two feet longer than the smallest. Dart is sized right in the middle of the big and little.

You get maneuverability without sacrifice of comfort or room. You get both gasoline economy and outstanding performance.

'62 DODGE DART!

The Dart standard six cylinder engine is the most powerful in the business. Its standard V8 develops more horsepower and torque than anything near its price.

Dart is comfortable. (Chair-high seats.) It is extremely easy to handle and park. (New low-friction steering gear.) And like every Dodge before it, completely dependable. The body is rustproofed. The brakes adjust themselves. You can go 32,000 miles between grease jobs.

The 1962 Dodge Dart is now, without question, the best buy on the market. See it. Drive it today.

2 Train-Car Wrecks Kill 3 Arkansans

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Two train-car wrecks over the weekend killed three Arkansans, bringing the total of violent deaths in the state during the week ending at Sunday midnight to 24.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Young of Bradford, near Newport, were killed when their pickup truck was struck by a Missouri Pacific passenger train at a crossing on Bradford's main street Saturday.

Mrs. Calvin Slaughter, 18, of Stuttgart, a bride of three months, was killed Sunday when a car driven by her husband and a Cotton Belt freight train collided at a crossing west of Elm, seven miles north of Stuttgart. Slaughter was injured.

Nine persons died in fires last week, four in a fire near Rison Friday and three in a fire at Cotton Plant Wednesday.

Six were killed in traffic accidents; three died by shooting, including one hunting accident; two drowned and one was killed in an industrial accident.

Two Negroes were fatally wounded Sunday in a cafe at Huttig, 30 miles southeast of El Dorado. Union County officers said Florence Pike, 28, of Strong and Jimmy Lee Warren, 25, of Huttig, were killed during a struggle over a pistol. Mr. and Mrs. James Washington, Negroes of Huttig, were held, officers said.

Charlotte Ray, 16, of Dollarway, was killed Saturday night when the car in which she was riding overturned into a ditch 5½ miles south of Pine Bluff on Grider Field Road. State Police said the driver, Wayne Boardas, 18, of Pine Bluff, and two other passengers escaped injury. Miss Ray was pinned under the car.

Mrs. Gordon Bradshaw, 54, of Greenland, was injured fatally Sunday when the car in which she was riding collided with a semi-trailer truck 13 miles south of Fayetteville on U.S. Highway 71.

State Police said the truck was driven by Eugene Stevens, 23, of Elm Springs. He was unhurt but Mrs. Bradshaw's husband and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bishop of Siloam Springs, were hurt.

Officers said the truck passed another truck and hit the Bradshaw car head-on.

Hot Battle in Louisiana Election

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP)—One of the hottest two-party political fights in Louisiana in years winds up Tuesday when the 4th District elects its new congressman.

A larger-than-normal absentee vote in the largest of the north-west Louisiana district's seven precincts indicated high interest in the election between Democrat Joe D. Waggoner and Republican Charlton H. Lyons Sr.

Waggoner, 43, of Plain Dealing, a member of the State Board of Education, remained a strong favorite to succeed the late Rep. Overton Brooks despite the vigorous campaign by Lyons, 67, registered voters are Democrats. Shreveport oilman.

The district has not elected a Republican since 1873.

Both candidates are segregationists and extreme conservatives. Their platforms are similar. Democrats in the 1960 election.

More Taken Into Hall of Fame

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The expanding Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame will induct three baseball greats and two former football stars of the 1920s at a Jan. 18 installation banquet.

Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe, who died last January, tops the list of newcomers. Rowe was a standout American League right-handed pitcher during the 1930s.

Rube Rosinson, a former Little Rock Traveler lefthander, the winningest Southern Association pitcher in a single season with 24 victories, joins Rowe along with Ray Winder, now a minor league official from Little Rock.

Ex-Arkansas Tech football coach John Tucker, who held a 77-18-8 mark during his 12 years at Tech and Carey Selph, a star quarterback at Ouachita from 1922-25, also will be initiated.

Sixteen Arkansas athletic greats have been named to the Hall of Fame since the first initiation was held in 1959.

The 76-year-old Winder remains with the Travelers as an executive while Tucker is Tech's athletic director.

Selph is in insurance at Houston, Tex. After leaving Ouachita he was an outstanding baseball player with the Texas League.

Hayden Fry Accepts Job at SMU

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Arkansas' youthful backfield coach Hayden Fry accepted a four-year contract Saturday to take over the head football coaching job at Southern Methodist.

The 32-year-old Fry succeeds Bill Meek who was fired several weeks ago by SMU trustees after five years. Meek's record at SMU was 17-29-4.

Fry came to Arkansas in 1960 after a year's coach at Baylor. Prior to this he coached at Odessa, Tex., for a three-year period.

SMU Athletic Director Matty Bell said Fry was chosen over several other applicants because "we think his qualifications and experience suit our situation."

Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles said he had anticipated the action but "you always hate to lose your coaches."

Broyles indicated that Fry would continue working with the Razorbacks until after the New Year's Day meeting with Alabama in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans.

Last year SMU failed to win a game while its 1961 record was 2-7-1.

The Mustangs' last Southwest Conference championship came in 1948 under the guidance of All-America quarterback Doak Walker.

An indication of the degree of Lyons' uphill struggle is in the district's registration figures. About 97 per cent of the 95,221 registered voters are Democrats.

The Republican presidential ticket, with more than 40 per cent of the vote, led both the States Rights party's unpledged electors (including Waggoner) and the Democrats in the 1960 election.

Eichmann Appeals Death Sentence

JERUSALEM (AP)—One of Adolf Eichmann's attorneys Sunday filed notice of appeal against the death sentence given the former Gestapo official.

The Israeli Supreme court is expected to start hearings in January on the appeal.

Eichmann's attorneys, Robert Servatius and Dieter Wechtenbruch, are expected to challenge the conviction with the claims that their client was unlawfully returned to Israel, that Israel had no right to try Eichmann for crimes committed before Israel.

Officials at the prison said they were constantly on guard to prevent an attempt on Eichmann's life by other prisoners.

Variety of Weather, All Miserable

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A variety of weather, mostly miserable, hit wide sections of the nation in a wet and stormy week.

Freezing rain and fog in many areas in the eastern half of the nation made conditions hazardous for both motorists and pedestrians. Many storm-related deaths, most of them in traffic accidents on slippery highways, were reported, including nine in Iowa, of snow covered mountain areas in the eastern half of the United States.

Heavy rains drenched areas in the southeast from Alabama northeastward to the Appalachians. Thunderstorms and heavy rain and drizzle sprinkled areas westward into the lower Mississippi Valley and northward into the Ohio Valley and middle Atlantic states.

Floods forced several hundred persons from their homes in Alabama and Mississippi. In Mississippi, more than 250 persons were evacuated from their homes along the Pearl River east of Jackson. Traffic controllers in the tower at the National Airport said the fog Sunday was so dense they could not see the ground.

The foul weather touched nearly all bases in the climatic cycle—snow, cold, strong winds, rain, sleet, fog, a tornado, thunderstorms and floods. The effects were nearly nationwide.

A snowstorm and cold air, powered by strong northerly winds, swept across Idaho into Montana and Wyoming and moved across the northern Rockies into the north central region. The mercury dropped to zero and below from Montana into Minnesota as the arctic air spread into the midlands.

Snow also hit many areas in the West, including parts of Colorado, Utah, Nevada, Arizona, Oregon, Idaho and Washington. Up to 42 inches of snow covered mountain areas in the eastern half of the United States.

Youthful Robbery
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A boy and a girl, each armed with a .22 caliber revolver, held up a liquor store here Saturday night and escaped with an undetermined amount of money. Albert Odell, the clerk, said he didn't know how old the pair was, but added that they were very young.

Tucked Turkey Tips

—by MARTHA LOGAN—

Did you know that you need never tuck a turkey again? That's right, the very finest plump, juicy frozen turkeys are marketed with the drumsticks tucked into a slit of skin at the base of the body cavity. The drumsticks can be slipped quickly out and into the tuck to accommodate the stuffing.

If the stuffing is to be made from your own favorite recipe you will buy a turkey that is ready-to-stuff. After thawing the turkey, slip the drumsticks out of the tuck. Remove the neck which is packed inside the body cavity and fill the turkey loosely with stuffing. Place the drumsticks into the tuck once more and the bird is ready for the oven.

Did you know that you need not bother with making stuffing when preparing turkey? How handy it is to buy the frozen turkey that is already-stuffed with a tasty old-fashioned bread stuffing. The frozen stuffed turkey may go into the oven without pre-thawing. Or many homemakers store the bird in the refrigerator overnight before roasting to cut the roasting time. Complete directions for storing and roasting are given on the wrapper of Butterball Swift's Premium Frozen Already-stuffed Turkeys.

When buying turkey allow 1½ pounds per person of ready-to-stuff turkey and 1½ to 2 pounds per person of the already-stuffed turkey. This allows for generous extra servings later.

Annual Christmas Party Held
The home of Mr. and Mrs.
Charlie Conway, 502 North Hazel Street, was the setting for the Cotton Club's annual Christmas party, Thursday night, Dec. 12.
The house was beautifully decorated in Yuletide fashion. Mrs. D.
Kern supervised the decorations.
The silver tree was the center of attraction.

Mrs. Mrs. Juanita Hart, assisted by Mrs. N. R. Yerger and Mrs.
L. M. Davis, greeted the guests at the door and directed them to the guest book, which listed 25 names.

Mrs. Willie Mitchell and Mrs.
Evelyn Williamson presided at the punch bowl.

The president, Miss E. L. Ford gave a beautiful corsage to each club member and presented the guests, Mrs. Will Rutherford, president of the Anna P. Strong club and Mrs. A. B. McQuary, secretary of the Charmettes Club to the group.

Presenters were exchanged and secret pals were revealed. Hostesses were Mesdames Mable Robison, Louise Yerger, Queen Hughes,
Annabel Yerger and Edna Conway.

Coming and Going
Mrs. Gertrude Mays and Mrs.
Bertha McDuffie of Saratoga were Wednesday guests of Mrs. Beatrice

Fred Waring Returns to Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-RADIO WRITER

NEW YORK (AP)—Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians, the musical aggregation of singers and musicians which has delighted audiences since the early years of television, will be back on TV after an absence of several years for a special Christmas Eve broadcast.

That is a pleasant prospect for Waring fans, but it is also highly ironic.

"Why haven't we been seen on TV recently?" Waring said. "I suppose I could give you some sort of a bland answer, but the truth is that we were dropped—rejected. Everybody told us we were finished."

"It's been hard to understand.
We really were the ones who invented the spectaculars on TV—
we did GE spectaculars for years,
every Sunday night."

The irony, of course, is that with the phenomenal success of "Sing Along with Mitch," on NBC, television is going into another of its cyclic phases. All of a sudden Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians are the subject of new interest.

If Waring's hour show on NBC
Dec. 24 comes off with style, it may mean the beginning of a whole new TV career. But Waring, a veteran of 45 years in show business, is not likely to forget his recent experiences with people in the medium.

"It's not only that there aren't many real showmen in television —and there aren't," continued the music master. "There's something completely off balance about the whole thing. Quite frankly, I don't know whether there's enough money in television to support our kind of organization—the economics are unbalanced."

The show will consist of memorable old songs and, although Waring won't urge it, you can sing along if you've gotten the habit.

The weekend TV was mostly run of the mine.

The Ed Sullivan show Sunday night was notable for the joint appearance of Duke Ellington and Louis Armstrong making music.

It was unforgettable for a rock
'n' roll version of "Jingle Bells"
by Paul Anka, who deserves lumps of coal in his Christmas stocking for doing it.

NBC's Sunday Show of the Week was good, routine espionage stuff called "Trick or Treason." But let's face it, Monique Van Vooren is no Mata Hari—shucks, she isn't even a very good dramatic actress.

UN Expected to Censure Mr. Nehru

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)
—The U.N. Security Council was summoned for an urgent meeting this afternoon to deal with the Indian attack on Portuguese Goa.

The meeting was set for 3 p.m.
EST after a request had been received from the Portuguese delegation for quick action.

India was expected to come under sharp criticism for the military action which began Sunday.

The invasion of Goa, Damao and Diu came after U.N. acting Secretary-General U Thant failed to get Indian Prime Minister Nehru to negotiate with Portuguese Premier Antonio Salazar over the enclaves.

He sent both men identical cables Thursday appealing to them to see that the situation on the borders of the three enclaves on the west coast of India did not deteriorate into a threat to peace.

Salazar accepted the suggestion for negotiations. Nehru's rejection said India had consistently lived up to the United Nations charter, but Portugal had "consistently ignored United Nations resolutions on ending colonialism" and refused to send the United Nations required reports on her colonies.

Nehru accused the Portuguese of repressing the inhabitants of the territories and staging daily raids into India.

Salazar said Portugal was ready to negotiate international guarantees that the Portuguese territories would not be used against India's security.

HOURS TO KILL

Chapter XXXI

Someone had come quietly up to the house in darkness, had bothered to move one of the heavy blocks into place in order to look over the sill—had taken the time, even warned by Hilary's electrifying outcry, to move the block away again.

In the kitchen, assembling cleaning things, she went on impulse into the pantry and called Jerome Kincaid at the Paraguerio.

His line was busy, and she returned to Hilary's room and the staggering business of cleaning up the floor. She sat down abruptly on the foot of Hilary's bed, hands steadily at her burning cheeks,
and Hilary said defensively,
"Those plates were chipped anyway."

Plates? Oh yes, Cornelia's conscientious list of damages, almost as laughable, now, as the thought of a madman making off with Hilary.
Mrs. Foale was not coming back to count her dishes and soft whisper to herself, Mrs. Foale was not coming back at all, because she had never been away.

Mrs. Foale was dead.

Hilary had sensed it, Jerome Kincaid, suspecting it, had emerged from that cobwebby trip to the cellar
